

MALASPINA COLLEGE

COLLEGE BULLETIN NO. 7

20TH MARCH 1970

1. Dean Chant, on behalf of the Academic Board, has asked to express his appreciation of the willingness of students and faculty to discuss freely matters of interest to the Board. The Academic Board visits colleges regularly to advise on academic standards and the development of higher education in B.C. He recognizes fine achievement here in the first year of operation under difficult conditions, and is confident that Malaspina College will make a fine contribution to higher education in B.C.

2. Dr. Opgaard would like to meet the faculty in room 108, on Thursday, April 2nd, at 1:00 p.m. He has asked the English faculty to make a presentation on the contribution of English to the college program.
