

1. ATTENTION ALL FACULTY

This is just to remind everyone that Dead Week is from December 6 to December 12 and that classes are to be held as usual for that period, but that no exams or new assignments are to be given.

2. EXAMINATION TIMETABLE

Students are advised to check the examination timetable for changes to the schedule of exams. There have been some changes in times and days. It is the responsibility of the student to know the day and time of all semester-end examinations. Any exam conflicts should be reported to the Registrar's office as soon as possible.

3. WITHDRAWALS

Students are reminded that Friday, December 6, is the last day to drop a course and obtain a "W" grade on the transcript. It is also the last day to change from Credit to Audit in any course. Please complete a change form at the Registrar's Office prior to December 6.

4. ADDRESS CHANGES

Grades for the Fall Semester will be sent to students at their permanent address unless the Registrar's Office is otherwise advised. If your address has changed, or you wish to receive your grades at an address other than your permanent address as on file at the Registrar's Office, please advise the Registrar's Office prior to Friday, December 13.

7.

Those Rascals from Humanities came to play
Volleyball . . . last Thursday.
Their finely tuned machine coughed and stammered
And by the Social Sciences they were thoroughly hammered!

10. THE GREAT DEBATE - A REMINDER

On Friday, December 6, in Room 108C, at 11:30 a.m. a debate on the following resolution will take place: "THAT PRO-CANADIAN AND ANTI-AMERICAN ARE THE SAME GODDAM THING".

This debate will be hosted and organized by the Canadian Studies class, whose members extend to you an invitation to attend. The format for debate makes provision for questions from the audience. Also, the members of the audience will judge which side is the victor.

11. PRE-REGISTRATION FOR SPRING SEMESTER

Want to avoid the rush of registration on January 6. Take advantage of the opportunity to pre-register at the Registrar's Office between December 2 - 20. All you have to do is complete the registration form based on the new Spring Timetable and submit it to the Registrar. If you have not received your copies of the forms, etc. in the mail or from your instructor, come and see us!
