The Effects of Speaking Anxiety in Second Language Acquisition

Introduction

- English is spoken worldwide, therefore, it is the first choice of many students, who decide to learn a second language.
- It is difficult for many ESL students to communicate orally with a native-speaker.
- This problem can be defined as Speaking Anxiety or Language anxiety.

Research Purpose

- Reveal factors that cause speaking anxiety in Vietnamese University students.
- Discover methods that help students overcome their fear of failure.
- Gathering teachers’ advice to improve student speaking skills and overcome anxiety.

Data Gathering

- Three Universities in Ho Chi Minh City, Vietnam. The HCMC University of Transport, FPT University and Hoa Sen University.
- Interviewing both teachers and students. (this should be 1st point)

---

Hao Nguyen

Bachelor in Business Administration
Master of Education Leadership candidate
Email: hao.nguyen9875@gmail.com