Victory Vitamin
COOK BOOK

For

WARTIME MEALS

By

FLORENCE LAGANKE HARRIS

WM. PENN PUBLISHING CORP.
NEW YORK
Contents

FOREWORD
by David Dietz, Scripps-Howard Science Editor

TO THE READER

WHY FOODS WILL HELP WIN THE WAR

vitamin-source table (8-11); other nutrients (11-12); measures of nutrients (13-16); Daily Food Guide (17); how it works (18-20), and vitamin “Z”

NOW YOU’RE IN THE QUARTERMASTER DIVISION AND DOING K.P. AS WELL selecting fresh fruits and vegetables (22-23); storing perishable foods (24); twelve rules for cooking food without loss (25-28); using liquids (29); dehydrated foods (29); recipes and menu-hints throughout

WAR-TIME PROBLEMS ON THE HOME FRONT

left-overs (32); lunch box meals (33); after the night shift (34); preserving—by canning (36), by drying (37), by brining (38); recipes and menu-hints throughout

vii
CONTENTS

RECIPIES 39
rules for use (39-40); beverages (40-49); breads, hot breads (50-63); cheese (64-68); desserts (69-95); eggs (96-101); meats, fish, poultry, legumes (102-131); salads (132-142); soups (143-147); vegetables (148-173); timetable for cooking vegetables (150), and menu-hints throughout

INDEX 174