“More Baller!”

7 Keep a natural confidence. Real ballers are proud of who they are and everyone knows it. They make eye contact when they talk. They smile. They keep things chill and positive and make people want to be around them. They take care of their health so they feel good inside. They love what they do, where they are, and who they surround themselves with. If you want to be a real baller, then you’ve gotta remember all that.

- You can’t become confident overnight, even if you become an overnight success. It takes time to build up to it.
Mapbox.js

Develop mobile and web applications with Mapbox.js, our open-source JavaScript library.

- Plugin ecosystem
- Built on Leaflet
- Browser support: Mobile browsers, modern browsers, and IE8+
