

I: So, just tell me.

B: First name or last name?

I: Both.

B: Ok. Alphonse. I came here last June. And last June, 23. Yes, I come from Congo. C-O-N. I'm from Congo. C-O-N-G-O, Congo. Yes.

I: This is just a consent form. So this is, we'll get you to sign that when we're done. Yeah.

B: OK. So, would you like I?

I: So, how come you came to Canada? And why Nanaimo? And what do you think of Canada and Nanaimo?

B: Must be, say that it is very beautiful country. Canada is a beautiful country because peace is here. And Nanaimo is very clean, very clean. If you want, can I speak in French some more?

I: You could. Yeah, sure. Yeah, absolutely.

B: OK. [Speaks in French].
